

All Staff Email Sent May 11, 2006

---

Colleagues,

Last night the budget committee approved a set of recommendations from College Council and me regarding the budget reductions. There were few changes to the original proposals. Since I am off campus today at a meeting to discuss statewide governance of community colleges, I will ask Donna Zmolek to send out the recommendations that were presented to the budget committee and it will be posted to the budget development website.

Mary.