Human Services

Two-Year Associate of Applied Science Degree
Career Pathway Certificate of Completion,
Adult Development and Aging

Purpose Human service workers are trained to provide a wide range of emotional and practical support services aimed at addressing the needs of people facing a variety of challenges in their lives. Human service workers are employed in diverse settings, serving children, adolescents, families, and adults. For example, human service workers can be found staffing crisis lines; supervising young juvenile offenders; working with the elderly to help them maintain their independence; arranging for services for homeless families; coordinating recreational services for people with disabilities; providing parent education; counseling and case managing individuals experiencing addiction; and advocating for victims of domestic or sexual violence. Coursework includes classes that meet basic requirements for Oregon state certification for chemical dependency counselors. Lane Community College's Human Services Program prepares students for entry-level employment in public and private non-profit agencies. Some Human Services Careers may require a Criminal Background check.

Learning Outcomes The graduate will:

- be able to communicate effectively with others.
- develop the competency required to work people from diverse backgrounds.
- assess an individual or a family's needs.
- develop a plan of action using client's strengths, and link people with community resources.
- use appropriate library and information resources to research professional issues and support lifelong learning.
- formulate questions that can be addressed with data and collect, organize and display relevant data to answer them.
- understand and apply evidence-based practices.

Adult Development and Aging

Career Pathway Certificate of Completion

Purpose This program prepares students to assist mature and elderly adults in a variety of settings.

Learning Outcomes The graduate will:

- be able to communicate effectively with others.
- develop the competency required to work with people from diverse backgrounds.
- assess an individual or a family's needs.
- describe the aging process and the impact of aging on an individual's intellectual, social, cultural and spiritual life.
- explain the diversity of experiences, and challenges, found amongst the aging population.
- demonstrate skills for effectively interacting with mature and elderly adults

Employment Trends The U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics projects a 35 percent increase in gerontology-related jobs by 2014. Historically, these careers have been primarily in healthcare settings. While demand for people to work in health care continues to remain high, opportunities to assist individuals and their families access social services to maintain their health and independence is expected to grow substantially. Additionally, as the general population ages, the nation's workforce will benefit from knowledge about aging and how to meet the needs of this diverse population of older Americans.

Wages In Lane County, wages range from $9 to $20 an hour with an average annual salary of $28,382 (Oregon Employment Division)

Costs in Addition to Tuition (estimate)*

Books $400
