New Student Information Session (NSIS) Information Guide

The NSIS Information Guide consists of a series of fill-in-the-blank items critical to a new student's success. As you continue through the slides complete the statements and keep this document as part of your academic folder for future reference.

Publications
1. The Lanev	will have the answers to most questions about going to school at Lane
2. Upon enrolling at Lane, you before you are bumped to a m	u will need to complete your de nore current catalog year.	gree/certificate within	years
3. The most efficient way to se	earch for class offerings is by ι	using the Registration
4. Choosing inappropriate cou	urses could cost you	and	_·
5. If you decide that you don't the class by using	want to take a class after regis	stering for it, you MUST	drop
6. Another important date for	continuing and/or returning stu (AR).	dents is the beginning o	f
College Organization
7. Financial Aid will only fund credit(s) that fulfillcredit.			_ and transfer
8. Most educational experts b	elieve that being enrolled in 12	? credits is comparable to	o a full-time enrolling in courses that fulfill king towards transfer to a four-y Campus Resources/Acaden	nic
	ortunity to consult with a progra interest you can always consul 		_ fficulty with writing, he/she cou Central in the Center Building.	ld speak to the instructo	r and/or receive

12. The Library is located in the Titan Store.	Building, directly across from Tutor Centra	I and the Career Exploration
13. A 3-credit course calledstudents with career exploration, identifying interest	(CG140) assists ests, and decision-making.	•
14. Simply having informational friends can lead to new opportunities you may ne		and
15. Two free services available to all students tha
Financial Aid
16. Not paying your Lane bill on time could result account going to collections, and Advance Regist	in a hold on yourration courses being dropped.	, your
17. For Financial Aid students to remain in "good% of attempted credits and earn a GP		lete
18. Paying your Lane bill can be achieved by pos electronically using Higher One found on Financial Resources
19. Each year, during the month of		ork Force
20. "Show Me the Money" (CG105), a 2-credit leaterm, can help with scholarship research and prep
21. As you consider all funding sources available educational resources exclusively to your Preparing for Classes
22. Success will likely be a result of good your goals.	and the relentless	of
23. Full-time students who achieve B's or better in a week.	n their courses tend to study about	hours
24. Parking at Lane's main campus tends to be a bus system for the first couple of weeks, if not for	•

Learning Experiences
25. Although most Co-op's are non-pai networking opportunities.	d, they do provide valuable work	and
26. Learning Communities are a great motivated while you pursue your college		and
27. Distance Learning includes the follo	owing options: On-line,	, and Live-
Campus Resources/Student Life
28. Developing a " Team", of mentors, family/friends, and general su
29. The Health Clinic, located inused by many students and employees	s throughout the academic year.	, is a low cost resource
30. Free legal guidance/consultation ca	an be found at	·
Your next step is to identify your program advisor/counselor should you need to clarify on anything that was covered in the NSIS, discuss academic/career goals, or develop an academic plan. A directory with advisor/counselor contact information can be found at the following website - http://www.lanecc.edu/stuser/advisorcounselors.htm
Program Advisor/Counselor Name
Building/Room Location
Phone #

E-Mail