ABILITY TO BENEFIT

Student Name: _____

L _____

To be considered for financial aid, you must demonstrate the "ability to benefit" from college coursework. You automatically meet this requirement if you have a high school diploma, GED certificate, completed home schooling at the secondary level, or have satisfactorily completed six credits that apply toward an eligible program at Lane.

Complete the appropriate statement and sign below. Return this form by mail to Attn: Financial Aid or place in the drop box located in the lobby of Building 1.

- ☐ I received my high school diploma or GED certificate in _____
Month & Year
- ☐ I completed secondary school (high school) in a home schooling setting _____
Month & Year
- ☐ I have satisfactorily completed six credits at Lane that apply toward an eligible program at Lane. I understand I am not eligible for financial aid while earning the six credits.
- ☐ I have satisfactorily completed six credits at another institution that apply toward an eligible program at Lane. I have attached an official transcript.
- ☐ I am 18 years or older and I do not have a high school diploma/GED certificate, have not completed secondary school in a home school setting, and have not completed six credits of college coursework. I understand I must demonstrate the Ability to Benefit by taking the Accuplacer Computerized Placement Test (CPT). The testing office has certified my testing scores below.

Ability to Benefit: You must make an appointment for testing. See www.lanecc.edu/testing for more information. Passing scores are as follows:

- | | |
|-------------------------|--------------------|
| ➤ Reading Comprehension | passing score = 55 |
| ➤ Sentence Skills | passing score = 60 |
| ➤ Arithmetic | passing score = 34 |

If you score below the minimum on any of the three tests, you are not eligible for financial aid. You will be referred to the Counseling Department to identify courses to help improve your testing scores.
