

East Meets West/Muslim Meets Christian World

- A journey with the Council on International Educational Exchange – Spain and Morocco: Exploring the Coexistence & Challenges of Neighboring Cultures. May & June 2010

[It all started in Seville...]

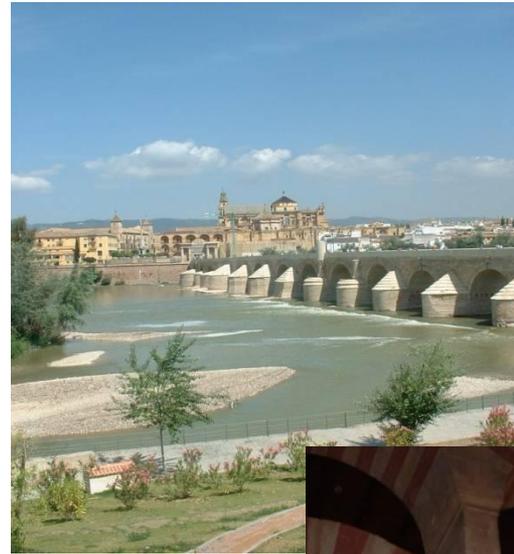

[A History of Interaction...]

[An Interaction of History...]

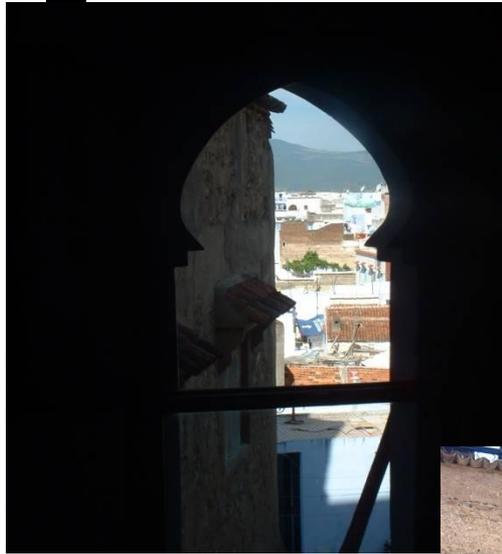

[Cordoba and the Moors...]

[Algeciras and Gibraltar]

And after a long border crossing, Morocco at last...

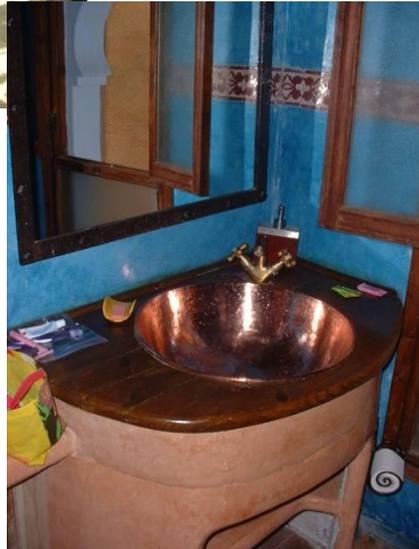

Chefchaouen, Mid-Atlas Mountains, Morocco

[I loved the markets!]

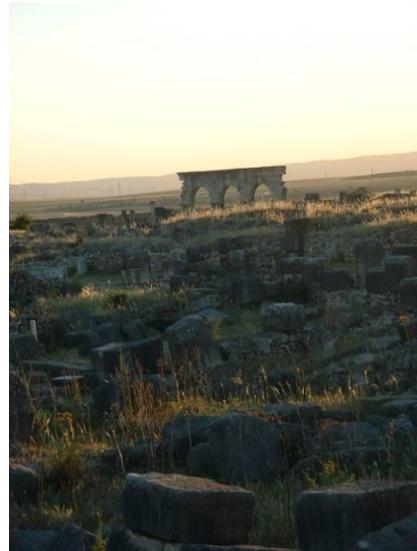

[Our hotel...]

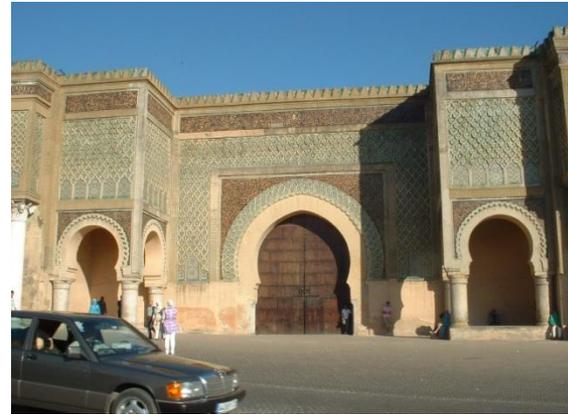

[Old and New...]

[Westernmost Roman Ruins]

[Have you seen this before?]

[The market place...]

[Rabat]

[Rabat's French Influence]

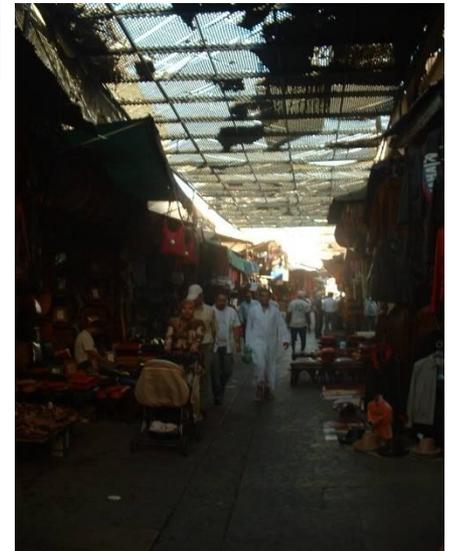

[Rabat's Muslim Tradition]

[The Royal Tombs]

[The old city of Rabat...]

[Dinner with the family...]

[Henna in the afternoon...]

[The Women's Co-op]

[A play in the park...]

[Casablanca]

[What I wish we all accepted...]

A decorative graphic at the top of the slide consists of a horizontal line with a light-to-dark green gradient. A large black left square bracket is positioned on the left side of the line, and a large yellow right square bracket is on the right side.

Teachers open the door, but you must enter by yourself.

--Chinese Proverb

SPAIN AND MOROCCO 2010