

Sabbatical Reports*
Faculty Professional Development
Wednesday, September 24, 2008
CML 226

Please note that presentation times are approximate.*

- 8:15-8:45 Continental Breakfast
- 8:45-8:57* "Instructional Technology - On Your Own"
-- Joe Escobar, Social Science
- 9:05-9:17 "How to learn all about grants and still not know how to get one"
-- Bojana Stefanovska, Spanish
- 9:25-9:37 "Opening Doors: Improving Communication Education for Second-Language Students"
-- Barbara Breaden, Speech
- 9:45-9:57 "Gaining Cultural and Historical Insights from the Land of William the Conqueror to the Land of William Tell"
-- Fay D'Ambrosia, Language, Literature, and Communication
- 10:05-10:20 Break
- 10:30-10:42 "Clowns to the Left of Me; Jokers to the Right: A Centrist Case for Civic Literacy"
-- Steve Candee, Social Science
- 10:50-11:02 "Journey to Healing"
-- Shannon Gaul, Health and PE
- 11:10-11:22 "Horticulture, Humans and Health: Science and Psychology Validate Ancient Cultures"
Subtitle: Plants and Gardens Offer Many Ways to Heal"
-- Ruth Bichsel, Social Science
- 11:30-11:42 "Of Blind Men and Elephants, Roads and Rome, and the Truth about God: A Critique of Religious Relativism"
-- Jeffrey Borrowdale, Social Science

Reports will be posted on the FPD website at: www.lanecc.edu/fpd

To be scheduled at a later date:

"The Magical Mystery Tour; My Search Over Five States for the Perfect Aviation Maintenance Technician Program"
-- Brian McGlynn, Advanced Technology