4. Review this section carefully. If accepted into the second year of the Graphic Design Program you will be taking the following courses in fall/winter/spring sequence:

Graphic Design Sequence (Art 221, Art 222, Art 223)
Production Sequence (Art 218 and Art 227, Art 228, Art 229)
Web Sequence (none fall, Art 289, Art 290)
Cooperative Education courses (Art 280 GD - usually scheduled with Production Sequence)
Business Practices (MUL 218BP any term of second year)

If you plan on taking more than one year to complete the second year of the Graphic Design Program you may be assigned to take either the Production sequence or the Graphic Design sequence first. Generally, students take Cooperative Education concurrent with or following Graphic Design Production. The Web Sequence may be paired with either.

5. Mark this section very carefully. Course reservations are based on this information.
