Join us for an opening reception on Friday, Sept. 7th at 5pm. On Friday, Sept 21st at 4:30pm we will also have a reception to honor the Cherokee Nation and Professor Mary Wood will open the inaugural Rennard Strickland lecture series.

The Annual Rennard Strickland Lecture Series serves to honor the legacy of Professor Strickland (Cherokee/Osage) and examine Native leadership and Vision for Environmental Stewardship in the 21st Century.

"If there is to be a post-Columbian future – a future for any of us – it will be an Indian future... a world in which this time,... the superior world view... might even hope to compete with, if not triumph over, technology."

THE CHEROKEE NATION HISTORY COURSE, sponsored by the Cherokee Nation, in conjunction with the Law School of the University of Oregon, is being offered to residents of Eugene and surrounding areas.

As seen in the Cherokee Phoenix and Indian Advocate, this six-day, forty-hour course has received widespread acclaim from the thousands of tribal employees and community members who have participated in it. Now as part of an ongoing initiative to rejuvenate our knowledge of language, culture, and history, Cherokee Nation citizens, as well as the general public, are offered the opportunity to enrich their understanding of the Cherokee government and people.
