

CML 2008-09

Accomplishment Description:

Increase Utilization

The David Joyce Gallery increased its marketing exposure and publicity, both on and off campus, and began offering three exhibits during the year. A thematic connection between food/hospitality and art now illustrates the Gallery exhibits. Oregon Crafted artists were featured in the Fall Show entitled, Oregon Beautiful Bounty, which sold art totaling $1975.00. The Winter Show entitled, Feasting, sold $535.00 worth of art. The Spring Show entitled, Markets, will be showing throughout the summer months, and has already sold $450.00 of art as of May, 2009. Resident artist, Susan Detroy, has applied for a grant through the Lane County Cultural Coalition in order to further promote the Gallery with the addition of a guest lecture series. A photographic portrait of David Joyce was gifted from the LCC Art and Applied Design Department by Susie Morrill and is now permanently hung in the CML stairwell.

Strategic Direction

- Promote professional growth and provide increased development opportunities for staff both within and outside the College.
- Create, enhance, and maintain inviting and welcoming facilities that are safe, accessible, functional, well-equipped, aesthetically appealing and environmentally sound.
- Commit to a culture of assessment of programs, services and learning.

Learning Plan Goals

- Facilitate more integrated and connected educational opportunities.
- Facilities enhancement.
- Support connected learning through inter-disciplinary and collaborative learning strategies.

Student Affairs Plan Goals

- Create a Welcoming, Inclusive, and Responsive Environment.
- Assess the general college environment, including adequate academic and non-academic spaces for students.

College Council Priorities

- 4.1 Responding to unit plans/council plans: Innovation