CAHM Goal: Curriculum Redesigns: Future 4-Year BAS Programs

Summary:

With increased national exposure of our accredited, reputable instructional programs, initial exploration and investigation will begin for the possible future of a 4-year Culinary Arts and Hospitality Management Program.

Description

With increased national exposure of our accredited, reputable instructional programs, initial exploration and investigation will begin for the possible future of a 4-year BAS Culinary Arts and Hospitality Management Program. Beginning with the Hospitality Management program, a 4-year course curriculum could provide a student with enormous academic opportunities including: additional practical hands-on experience, advanced 300-400 level classes, a year internship/externship program with regards to sustainability and green energy, and a specific industry-related course of study.
