CAHM Goal: Curriculum Redesigns: Program Electives Expansion

Summary:

With the increased enrollment in the Hospitality Management Program and full-to-capacity enrollment of the Culinary Arts 2009 student cohort, as well as the inclusion of students from the Career Pathways Certificate Programs, the demand for entry into the required Program Elective classes is at a critical point.

Description

With the increased enrollment in the Hospitality Management Program and full-to-capacity enrollment of the Culinary Arts 2009 student cohort, as well as the inclusion of students from the Career Pathways Certificate Programs, the demand for entry into the required Program Elective classes is at a critical point. A plan to expand the course program elective offerings from existing classes offered in other departments is already underway; identifying what appropriate classes from other areas of study would successfully satisfy Program Elective credit.
