

CCS 2009-10

Accomplishment Description:

CAHM Program, Curriculum, and Faculty/Student Success

Student Club activity this year was high and most successful. Student Club Officers and participants supported the Program 100% for the variety of events including the Mt. Pisgah Mushroom Festival and the Program Open House. The Student Club earned $1500 at the Mt. Pisgah Mushroom Festival, the most money for a single event, and ended the year with a balance of over $8900. The Student Club provided additional support funding for the purchasing of cookbooks by guest chefs for students as well as ACF membership for student graduates, Women Chefs and Restaurateurs (WCR) membership for 2 female 1st-year Culinary Arts students, and held monthly meetings which generated more student involvement and activity.
