How will funding this initiative increase or sustain the number of CTE students that graduate or receive a one year certificate from Lane and help prepare the students for employment?

Most of the videos requested offer demonstrations of skills and techniques that students are learning in the classroom. Through observation, students can identify and breakdown specific interviewing and counseling skills. Criminal Justice students will be able to observe best practices in current prison/jail careers. This is a micro skills training approach, which has been well researched and documented as an effective approach in teaching these skills to students.
