Tutoring 2011-12

Tutoring Services: Contribute to the field through participation in professional organizations.

Summary:

Share resources of Lane Community College's quality tutor training with other CRLA members.

Description

Lane is a model for providing quality tutoring services that meet College Reading and Learning Association certification at the highest level. The department has an obligation and opportunity to share what works with other tutoring programs across the state, region and country. Tutoring Services Coordinator Liz Coleman will submit conference proposals to present on tutoring services at conferences and workshops through professional organizations.

Questions and Answers

How is the initiative linked to the Unit Plans most recently submitted?

1. How does it continue the achievement of those goals?
2. If this is a continuation of an initiative started last year, make sure that relationship is clear.

How is this initiative linked to the efficiencies and productivities plans you had last year?

1. How does it continue the achievement of these plans?
2. If this is a continuation of an efficiency or productivity plan started last year, make sure that relationship is clear.

Describe the resources needed:

professional development funds

tutoring coordinator's time

What specific measurable program outcomes do you expect to achieve with this initiative? The outcomes should be specific enough to be measurable. Also, outline the method that will be used to determine the results.

The Tutoring Services Coordinator will present at at least one regional or national conference in 2011-12.

The Tutoring Services Coordinator will explore opportunities for leadership in professional organizations.

Department Priority:

4

Unit Resources:

Funding Request: Carl Perkins

Funding Request: Curriculum Development

Funding Request: Technology Fee