

Lane Community College's
Reading Together Project Presents

2007-08 Visiting Author Louise Steinman
War: Loss, Survival, and Reconciliation

Thursday April 3

10-12 LCC Main Campus Center for Meeting & Learning
CML 102-103 (Building 19)
Keynote, reading, Q&A, book signing

2-3:30 LCC CML 102
Q&A/ discussion & book signing

7:30 Reading and book signing at Tsunami Books,
2585 Willamette

Friday April 4

10-12 LCC CML 102-103
Panel discussion: Louise Steinman and LCC student Vets

7:30 UO Many Nations Longhouse, (behind UO Law School)

Panel discussion: Louise Steinman and members of our region's diverse communities consider War and Reconciliation in terms of social inequities

All events are free and open to the public

After her parents' death, Louise Steinman, author of the 2007-08 Reading Together book selection, The Souvenir: A Daughter Discovers Her Father's War, discovers a forgotten trove of her father's WWII letters and a troubling "souvenir." The revelations contained in these artifacts propel her into a mental and physical journey which explores the lasting impacts of war versus the redeeming possibilities of reconciliation and forgiveness. Besides authoring the award winning The Souvenir and numerous other publications, Steinman curates the nationally recognized ALOUD literary series at the Los Angeles Public Library, serves as Co-Director of the Los Angeles Institute of the Humanities at USC, and was Senior Creative Advisor for the Sundance Institute's Arts Writing Program.

an equal opportunity/affirmative action institution

For more information, contact: Ellen Cantor, 463-5749, cantore@lanecc.edu, or Jennifer Cook, 463-3655, cookj@lanecc.edu, or visit us on the web at: www.lanecc.edu/readingtogether.
If you need disability accommodations in order to attend or participate in Reading Together events, please contact Disability Services (541) 463-5150 (voice) or 463-3079 (TTY) at least one week in advance.