

News from Lane Community College
March 20, 2009

AWARD WINNING DOCUMENTARY FILM MAKER RICK ROWLEY BRINGS HIS “BEYOND THE WALLS” FILM TOUR TO LANE COMMUNITY COLLEGE AND DOWNTOWN EUGENE ON APRIL 2, 2009.

Eugene -- The Lane Peace Center, in co-sponsorship with the UO Multicultural Center, ASLCC & CALC, is proud to bring award winning documentary maker Rick Rowley to Eugene for two showings of his ‘Beyond the Walls’ film tour. Among the films Rick has created are: This Is What Democracy Looks Like; The Fourth World War; Winter Soldier (2008); and The Jena 6 (2008). Rowley’s coverage has appeared on CNN, BBC, PBS, Democracy Now!, Al Jazeera International and many other networks.

There will be two presentations on Thursday, April 2, 2009. The first will be from 1 – 3 PM on the Lane Community College Main Campus, building 17, 309. The second will be from 7 – 9 PM at the First United Methodist Church, 1376 Olive St., Eugene.

The program involves discussion and three short films on United States involvement in Iraq. The films are: Beyond the Wall: Inside the Sadr Movement in Iraq (2008); Re-awakening Saddam’s Tribal Strategy (2009); and the Detention Imperative (2009).

This is a rare opportunity to see the films and discuss them with world class documentary maker Rick Rowley. The films and discussion give a window into the reality of US involvement in Iraq unfiltered by mainstream news.

If you have questions contact Stan Taylor, Chair of the Lane Peace Center, at taylor@lanecc.edu or call 463-5820 or 344-4263.