

Jeralee Stewart holds a Specialized Associate in Piano Pedagogy from Ricks College, and a Bachelor of Music in Harp Performance from the University of Oregon School of Music where she was a three time recipient of the Ruth Lorraine Close Award for advanced study of the harp.

She has been playing the piano for 27 years, and the harp for 17 years. Currently, she is on faculty at the John G. Shedd Institute for the Arts, and LCC where she teaches harp. Jeralee also maintains an private piano and harp teaching studio. She is a freelance harpist and plays for various functions throughout the greater Eugene/Springfield area and is an active member of the American Harp Society.

Jeralee particularly enjoys teaching adult students and while she is adept at teaching beginners through advanced harpists, her primary goal in teaching is to give the student a solid foundation of harp technic, playing as relaxed as possible. Lessons are focused on the individual and their particular strengths and weaknesses. Jeralee teaches all styles of music, from folk and popular, to classical repertoire."
