CARLA GARY

GEARING UP FOR A PROMISING FUTURE

Dr. Carla Gary will examine practices that can effectively change the face of higher education. Among the areas will be the need to recruit different voices especially women of color, poor women still highly absent in the university faculty and administration.

She will then share details about and her hope for her recently funded project, which will create experiential educational opportunities for traditionally underserved students and their communities.

WED FEBRUARY 23, 1-3 PM
LCC ART GALLERY BUILDING 11

People are welcome to come late or leave early as schedule permits
