

Japanese–American Remembrance Day

A Panel Presentation

Concerning the Experience of Internment and Creation of the Eugene Internment Memorial

Lane Community College
Tuesday Feb 21, 11am–1pm,
Building 19 Rm 226

Panelists include:

artist Kenge Kobayashi, who was interned at Tule Lake, CA. Kobayashi has been commissioned to create a memorial outside the Hult Center, the site where Japanese-Americans in the Eugene area were ordered to report for removal to the camps;

author Bob Kono, who is creating the text for the memorial and was also interned;

Alice Aikens, chairperson for the Eugene Memorial Committee, whose family was also interned.

People are welcome to come late or leave early as schedule permits.

If you need disability accommodations in order to attend or participate in this event, please contact Disability Services (541) 463-5150 (voice) or 463-3079 (TTY) at least one week in advance.
