

Reading Together Presents

Yonkalla Kalapuya/Coos elder and storyteller
Esther Stutzman
and Oregon Pioneer descendent and author
Shannon Applegate

Tuesday April 25 10-11:30
CML Building 19 Room 104

A collaborative presentation about the historical relationship forged between the Oregon pioneer Applegate family and the Yoncalla band of the Kalapuya peoples. This relationship consists of a continuing unfolding story, forged through generations, successfully bridging cultures. The contentious cultural context made this a very challenging proposition, and Esther and Shannon will speak to these challenges, as well as the evolving rewards of this relationship.

People are welcome to come late or leave early as schedule permits. If you need disability accommodations in order to attend or participate in this event, please contact Disability Services (541) 463-5150 (voice) or 463-3079 (TTY) at least one week in advance.
