

Reading Together

Learning, Caring, and Community at Lane

Navigating the Changing Terrain

The Reading Together Project hosts an inspiring year of activities centered around two powerful books. We encourage Lane students, college staff, and members of the local community to read Dan O'Brien's memoir, Buffalo for the Broken Heart: Restoring Life to a Black Hills Ranch and N. Scott Momaday's The Man Made of Words: Essays, Stories, Passages.

Reading Together invites you to participate in the many community-building activities that will occur during fall, winter, and spring terms, 2006-07. Events will include a campus visit by the Reading Together author Dan O'Brien, performing arts productions, art exhibits, workshops, guest speakers, forums, discussion groups, films, student presentations, service learning projects, course involvement and more.

See the Reading Together webpages for our current calendar of events and project information. For more information, contact: Ellen Cantor, Reading Together Coordinator at 463-3660, visit us on the web at www.lanecc.edu/readingtogether, or come see us at the Reading Together office in Building 20 on main campus.

If you need disability accommodations in order to attend or participate in Reading Together events, please contact Disability Services (541) 463-5156 (voice) or 463-3679 (TTY) at least one week in advance.

a Learning
Community
Project

Lane
Community College

an equal opportunity/affirmative action institution

